Dear Mr. Stafne,

Thank you for your correspondence dated October 12, 2016.

Attached, please find a list of all presidential electors that were submitted to our office for the 2016 Election.

Additionally, you asked for information regarding procedures, if any, by which a political party can replace a presidential elector. If party rules and procedures allow, a party could submit an amended certificate of electors containing an amended list of names and addresses of the party's chosen electors. Any amended certificate should contain the signature of the party representative who originally certified the slate of electors or that person's documented successor. Any new electors would also have to submit a pledge as required in RCW 29A.56.320. The Washington Secretary of State's Office strongly prefers this method of replacing an elector because it provides some certainty regarding what the slate will be before the date that the electors convene. However, if a vacancy in the slate of electors is created under party rules and procedures, and the vacancy still exists on the date that the electors convene, the remaining electors can fill the vacancy "with a voice vote, and plurality of votes" according to RCW 29A.56.340. To the extent you need information about what the parties' rules and procedures allow, you should direct those questions to the parties.

Sincerely,

Lori Augino
Director of Elections
